

The Legacy Foundation of South Carolina

P.O. Box 277
Pineland, SC 29934

843-608-8013
WeInspireYoungMinds@gmail.com

Jasper County, SC – September 16, 2024: The Legacy Foundation of SC proudly announces that its Executive Director, Maurice Lawyer, has been accepted into The Fred R. Sheheen Non-Profit Leadership Institute at Francis Marion University. This prestigious program offers non-profit leaders from across the state the opportunity to acquire advanced leadership skills and innovative strategies for managing their organizations effectively while fostering relationships with peers and experts in the field.

Maurice Lawyer expressed his enthusiasm about participating in the institute. He stated, "Participating in the Fred R. Sheheen Non-Profit Leadership Institute will equip me with advanced leadership skills and strategic tools tailored for the non-profit sector. I believe the program will provide me with fresh insights into effective management, fundraising strategies, and community engagement, all of which can be directly applied to enhance my work at The Legacy Foundation of SC. By connecting with other non-profit leaders and learning from seasoned experts, I will be better positioned to drive impactful initiatives, measure the results of our programming, and further the foundation's mission in our community."

On behalf of the Chairman of the Board, Morris R. Lawyer, the Co-Chair, Shond Graham, and the full board of The Legacy Foundation of SC, we extend our heartfelt congratulations to Maurice on this significant achievement. We look forward to the valuable knowledge and insights Maurice will bring back to the organization, further strengthening our impact in the community.

For more information about The Legacy Foundation of SC and our initiatives, please visit our website at www.thelegacyfoundationsc.org.

Best regards,

Morris R. Lawyer

Morris R. Lawyer
Chairman of the Board

The Legacy Foundation of SC
"Inspiring young minds to dream of a better tomorrow, creating a brighter future."